

Never Forgotten

Longways: Becket

Music: Contrassaurus- Commeth the Banana/Rare

Although this was the first dance I wrote, it is possibly the one with the most meaning. I wrote it a few days after my twin brother's anniversary, who as many of you will know died very shortly after birth, but 10 weeks before I was born. The name came to me a couple of weeks later, having been struggling with what to call the dance, then all of a sudden it came to me 'Never Forgotten', because although I never met him, I owe my life to him and that I will never forget.

- A1: (1-4) Circle L $\frac{3}{4}$, pass through
(5-8) Swing new neighbour.
- A2: (1-4) Lines forward & back
(5-8) Mad robin [men in front].
- B1: (1-8) Reel of 4 across set [men pass L to start, ladies push back 2nd time they meet].
- B2: (1-8) Partner balance & swing.

For the men, the reel is in essence a normal reel of 4. The ladies, however, need to do half a reel to get to their original side. So, to fix this they 'ricochet' back to the R the 2nd time they meet, where they should find their partner, ready to balance & swing.

Progression: 1 place Clockwise